

Sewage Treatment

Sewage Recycle Advanced Treatment System/Little Stream Plant

Advanced treatment facilities combined with various treatment methods are provided for various applications

Kobelco Eco-Solutions is committed to creation of a comfortable environment society by providing advanced sewage treatment technologies for various needs such as recycling of sewage treatment water into landscaped water, hydrophil water and intermediate water system.

Features

- Advanced treatment facilities combined with membrane separation activated sludge method, ozone treatment and low pressure reverse osmosis treatment (RO), etc. for wide range of water from water to "see" to water to "touch."

Mechanism and application

